Excerpt: . . . Appendix I Briefing Provided to Staff, House Committee on Homeland Security Objectives, Scope, and Methodology We assessed the extent of coordination and collaboration between DHS and the Regional Information Sharing System ( RISS ) program based on the requirements 1 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 and other federal guidance and best 2 practices identified by the Office of Management and Budget ( OMB ) and on prior 3 GAO research and experience at federal agencies. In doing so, we also assessed how DHS and RISS ensured that this information was, among other things, relevant, reliable, and timely. Details of our scope and methodology are provided in appendix I. We performed our work from February 2006 through December 2006, in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. For the purposes of this review, a network is defined as data communication links that enable computer systems to communicate with each other. Definitions and descriptions of this and other terms are provided in appendix II. 1 Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L.
