American Exceptionalism: 11 Generations of an American Family in History

By MR David Lloyd Arnaudo

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Eleven Generations of An American Family in History. This 540 plus page book is a lively but scholarly social, economic and political history of North America (parts of the United States and Canada). The period covered spans from English origins in the 1500 s and 1600 s to the present. A special effort has been made to include references to women, Native Americans, Blacks, Asians and Hispanics. The book has been partially reviewed by established authorities and authors and class room tested at OLLI at the American University, Washington, D.C. This history covers the initial settlement and subsequent major developments by generations in New England, New Netherlands (now New York), and Virginia. Later movements to Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Nova Scotia, Maryland and further south are covered as well. After the Revolution, migration to and living in the mid-west -- West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa are discussed. The dramatic flight to the far west - Oregon and California is detailed. More recent trends show a nationalization and even internationalization of the country as well as great gains...
