We still have mild weather, field flowers in bloom, --no frosts; and the ducks have almost departed, to return with the ice and snow, borne to us on the wings of the north wind. Please start it. Yesterday Will and I started, with our hand-cart loaded with decoys, to the large shallow ponds formed by the rain on the sandy plain next to the beach. We had two boatmen to assist, and made a funny procession, I occasionally riding on the top of the load, for the walk was long. We set out our decoys, and dug two holes in a sand hillock deep enough to conceal us; but the day was too bright for the success we expected; the birds flew wide of us, and our bag was only five swan, two geese, and six ducks. Don t...
