

Vacation Therapy

By Melanie Hawks

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 238 pages. Get swept away by Vacation Therapy, a heartwarming tale of self-discovery based on the authors own experiences. A chronicle of love, loss, and lifelong friendship, this insightful look into human nature proves that sometimes it takes a trip around the world to find your way back home. Anna and Alma have been friends since graduate school, when they vowed to travel together each year. Anna, fresh off a painful divorce, still struggles with guilt over moving to another state with her young children. Yet she views these trips with Alma as a way to reconnect with herself, ultimately hoping that they will open Anna up to the possibility of love once again. Their vacation tradition kicks off when Anna and Alma win a spring break cruise to the Bahamas aboard a luxury ocean liner. Annas foray into two piece swimsuits and socializing doesnt turn out quite as expected, however, as the cruise ship turns out to be an oversized ferry crammed with drunken college kids. Their next trip finds the two best friends in Cancun and Playa del Carmen, Mexico, where Annas internal battle with herself comes to a head. But as she...
