CHAPTER VI SENSORY EDUCATION A game is a free activity ordered to a definite end. In the theory of education set forth in Dr. Montessori's book, the education of the senses takes a very important place, because it is only by the perfecting of the sensorymotor-nervous system that the fully developed conscious life of the individual is gained, which is our ideal. We have discussed, in a separate chapter, the principles and methods of her system of muscular education, but we must never forget that the two processes, sensory and motor, are united in the human being, and education in them both goes on simultaneously. Education has long concerned itself with the motor side of our nature. To learn by doing is a familiar precept. But the sensory side, while not in any sense neglected, has not until now been scientifically studied,...
