

Red Snapper

By Mr Samuel J Parker

Mercom Associates Limited. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 316 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Red Snapper is an explosive political thriller set on the Caribbean island of Jamaica in the run up to the violent election of 1980 an election in which nearly 900 people were murdered. The story is set against a background of political change sweeping the Caribbean. Fidel Castro is the catalyst for this change and has inspired leaders such as Maurice Bishop Grenada, Forbes Burnham Guyana and Michael Manley Jamaica to reject the imperialists such as the USA and Britain and embrace the socialist ideology. America appears unwilling to confront this change as it is still convulsed by the anti-Vietnam war sentiment sweeping the country. The President, Jimmy Carter, is more committed to dialogue than military action. The CIA is more committed to covert action to destabilise these regimes than dialogue. The Story The story starts with the CIA field agent, Carlton Davies, witnessing the violent revolution in Grenada and is one of the last foreigners to leave before Maurice Bishop and his revolutionaries take over the country. Carlton Davies, his cover provided by the US Department of Commerce, gathers evidence that Michael Manley, Prime...
