Indiana University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 96 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Everyone who has been associated with Indiana University and Herman Wells has a favorite story or two about this great man. Some of his friends thought collecting a few of these stories in a little volume and presenting them to him, and to his many friends and associates throughout the University community, on his 90th birthday would be an excellent way to celebrate the occasion. There are a lot of good ones here, some funny, some serious, all very human and all of them revealing different facets of a warm human being and a brilliant college president. The Enema Bandit The late Paul Klinge, long-time associate of Herman B Wells, told the story of a meeting involving campus security officials and other members of the administration back in the late 60s where the activities of one particular character were discussed. The Bloomington campus had been alerted by the Urbana-Champaign authorities who had been notified by the police at another midwestern university farther west to be on the lookout for a fellow who was making his way east from the plains states. His modus operandi was to force entry into a co-eds room and, instead of violently assaulting her, he would (simply) give her an enema and leave. Much discussion resulted pertaining to some strategies the campus could use to prevent an incident here. HBW sat silent, until with that customary twinkle in his eye he slowly said, . . . I wish he would have caught me last Thursday! Richard E. Bishop The Wells Touch Late one hot summer afternoon I found myself crammed into a window seat at the back of a 727 jetliner at New Yorks LaGuardia Airport awaiting departure to Louisville. The last passenger in was Dr. Wells. He...
