Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Training of the Church Christianity is the greatest treasure of our race. But it is being misrepresented by its friends. The church should be a radiant army of crusaders carrying a glad message and a ready service to all the untaught and destitute. The world is waiting for the conquest; the means, the men and the message are all at hand. Why does not the work go forward at a faster rate? The plain fact is, we have not gripped the facts of our faith, nor let them grip us very firmly as yet. Many churches are but nominally Christian, and many church-members are in no sense disciples - learners - in the school of Christ. This little hand-book has been prepared for use by those who see the situation as it is, who feel the distress of it, and who are seeking a remedy for it. The title, The Training of the Church, suggests precisely what the author and publishers desire it to assist in doing. It is hoped that whole churches, under direction of competent leaders and teachers, will take up these studies together. It will not be enough for the preacher to discourse upon the topics treated, though this will be a helpful accompaniment of the course. These matters must be studied by the people for themselves, and so studied as to be retained in their minds as a part of the intellectual and spiritual possession of the individual. The whole church needs it. It is as important that the people know their duties and obligations as that those chosen to serve in special capacity know theirs. There are thirty-five lessons...
