We Remember Them, by Mary and Richard Bentz, is a biographical supplement for the book Fatal Dive, by Peter F. Stevens. Fatal Dive documents the incredible story of the search for and discovery of the WW II submarine USS Grunion (SS-216), which disappeared without a trace on July 30, 1942, near the Aleutian Island of Kiska shortly after the Battle of Midway. When Fatal Dive was outlined, it was decided to include a biography of each of the 70-man crew in an appendix. Due to space limitations, the bios were necessarily brief. The purpose of We Remember Them is to provide extended biographies of the crew, using information that the authors gleaned from many sources, including archival military records at the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in College Park, Maryland, the National Personnel Records Center, Military Personnel Records (NPRC-MPR) in St. Louis, Missouri, Charles Hinman, owner of the website; and other sources, including photographs, memorabilia, and personal remembrances of family members and friends of the crew of the Grunion. Catherine (Kay) Abele, wife of the submarine s commander, LCDR Mannert (Jim) Abele, maintained correspondence with the families of the entire crew, officers and enlisted men alike, through the years following Grunion s loss. Susan Abele, wife of Jim Abele s son Bruce, organized the correspondence into binders. These letters became an invaluable resource for this book. They provided insight into what it was like to live without loved ones lost to war with no information about what had become of them. Excerpts from sailors letters home provide a look at their hopes, their aspirations, and their concerns about family members and loved ones left behind. About...
