Excerpt: . . . 11 this expert panel, the Secretary should initiate reviews for services that have experi-enced substantial changes in factors that may indicate changes in physician work and identify new services likely to experience reductions in value. Those latter serv-ices should be referred to the RUC and reviewed in a time period as specified by the Secretary. Finally, to ensure the validity of the physician fee schedule, the Sec-retary should review all services periodically. Outpatient dialysis services Most indicators of payment adequacy for outpatient dialysis services are positive. Beneficiaries are not facing systematic problems in accessing care. Providers are in-creasing capacity to meet patients demand (as demonstrated by the increasing num-ber of facilities and hemodialysis treatment stations), spending is increasing, and providers have sufficient access to capital. The quality of care is improving for some measures - dialysis adequacy and anemia status - and...
