 Gerrie Swart, a lecturer in the Department of Political Sciences at the University of South Africa, (UNISA) is the the Guest Editor of this volume. Gerrie, who has been a frequent contributor to the journal in the last year and half, solicited, and ensured a timely delivery of all the articles in the lead theme in this edition. We are deeply grateful to him. In this issue, we focus on the quality of leadership in the continent, looking at the challenges, triumphs and trends. In his paper, Gerrie Swart, argues that any mention of African leadership today regrettably always tends to conjure up the negative associations with Africa's so-called Big Men and the ravages of dictatorship that has on frequent occasions laid waste to many African states political and socio-economic stability. He contends that while there are instances to buttress such observations, it is also necessary to evaluate the important initiatives, trends and responses that have emerged from the African continent to the challenges posed to, and by African leadership. He maintains that...
